BROADWAY PLAZA — Lemon Grove's newest shopping area held its grand opening Saturday morning with pretty girls, free gifts, refreshments and door prizes. Here, Miss Lemon Grove, Linda Arthur, prepares to cut the ribbon with Chamber of Commerce president Dr. Sam Smith. Next to Miss Arthur are Bob Helmuth, Plaza developer, and L. O. Hansen of Southland Savings.

Trustees Get Stumbaugh And $90,000 Windfall

Lyle Stumbaugh, the certified public accountant member of the Lemon Grove school board, was elected its president at the regular meeting Monday night.

Bert Cosby became vice president and Tom Higdon, clerk.

School Superintendent Byron Netzley was reelected secretary.

The men will serve for the school year 1966-67.

A financial windfall came to the district, the new officers were told, in a $90,000 state grant. In the closing days of the Assembly, an aid to "low-wealth districts" bill was passed. Originally it was to go only to unified districts but in the final hours of the Assembly, elementary districts were included.

The money will be used by the new board to increase the budget by that amount to $2,220,885.00. One-third of the money will be used to offset tax requirements. The rest will be used for items whacked from the budget by trustees caught between rising costs and a determination to keep the budget as low as possible.

All employees got raises under the old budget but requests were scaled down. Some of these scaled-down raises may be re-examined now. Other omissions, some of which may be restored include: a third class for educationally handicapped; a third class for mentally retarded; a half position of nursing, and various pieces of equipment dropped as the budget rose higher.

These matters will be discussed at the next meeting.

Grossmont Trustees OK 3% Pay Increase With Strings Attached

The Grossmont College Board of Trustees Monday approved a three per cent salary increase for 115 teachers on the contention that federal funds would be received.

The action was taken at the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees. The raise, granted to the 115 teachers on the college faculty, was a third of what had originally been requested.

The raise hinges on whether the federal government decides to pay junior colleges in California money for families connected with the service and defense industry.

There was a move to abandon payment of the money to elementary schools under what is known as federally impacted areas legislation.

The money is paid to school districts where there is a concentration of service families or families connected with the defense industry.

The budget adopted by the trustees was $2.88 million for the 1966-67 fiscal year. The budget is about $800,000 more than last year's budget.

In other action, Walter A. Yuhl was appointed as dean of the summer session and the evening school. He has been chairman of the history department and has been at Grossmont College for the past five years.

The trustees also awarded a bid to Stone and Haas of Lemon Grove for work on the drainage, landscaping and physical education projects. The bid was $292,979. Work will begin in about a week.

Also approved was a program for nurses which will begin in 1967-68. The first registered nurse is expected to be graduated in about three years.

The board approved the hiring of a director of nursing at a salary of $8,000 per year in connection with the program.

In his letter, Boney stated that County Government "is really unknown to many citizens residing in the metropolitan area — perhaps the reason for this lack of interest is that the County has no recognized official chief executive." He went on to point out that the mayor of a city can focus a great deal of public attention on the city and is able to put forward new programs because he is elected by all of the people.

Boney also urged that the Board make provision for an additional Supervisor in order to avoid tie votes and "to give county residents more adequate and equitable representation." If placed on the ballot and approved by the voters, this would be the first county in rotation, by his fellow Board members; I believe this prerogative belongs to the voters," Boney said in closing. Boney's request that the people "be given an opportunity to vote on this issue" will be discussed by the Board at its regularly scheduled meeting July 19th.

Mail Women Eligible As Mailmen

The Lemon Grove Post Office is seeking mailmen — but jobs will go to women.

The Lemon Grove Post Office is seeking more mailmen but the jobs may go to women — if they can pass the physical.

The physical consists of picking up an 80 lb. bag, carrying it 20 feet, returning it to its previous location, and setting it on the floor.

Actually, there are other requirements, too. But the federal guidelines require that no one be refused a federal job because of "race, creed, color, sex, or national origin."

Applicants must live within the Lemon Grove Postal area and meet mental and physical standards set up by the U. S. Civil Service.

Application forms may be obtained from any post office.

Spotlight on Industrial Development Explodes Myths

Bank of America is currently attempting to "put some wandering local development programs back on the right track" through statewide distribution of a report that explodes the myths in industrial development.

Drawing its material from the experience of the American Industrial Development Conference, the report challenges the following fantasies:

1. That industrial development doesn't mean a thing; it just steals plants from here and puts them there;

2. That industry in a community creates more problems than it solves;

3. That all we need is for new plants to come in. Our present industry doesn't do much for us;

4. If we get industry we get the taxes — oh boy!

5. That industry goes where taxes and wages are lowest. Nothing else counts;

6. That research is bunk. All we need is a prospect list and a man with an expense account; and

7. That industrial development is a joke. What has happened would have happened anyway.

The BoA study is a down-to-earth approach to the misunderstood art of turning green pastures into revenue and job producing facilities.

Copies of the first report are being distributed to the bank's 895 branches in California, to chambers of commerce, governmental leaders and other interested parties.

The first report is one of three and the series is titled "Community Action for Balanced Development". The other two will be published later this summer.

The bank believes that the scotching of stories not based on fact will help throw light into dark corners of economic development. Positive statements, listed in the report, are based on extensive experience of professional developers. These findings will help un-complicate industrial development.

The UPPER ROOM

Read Ephesians 4:1-6

"You shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the end of the earth." (Acts 1:8, RSV)

By the time I arrived at the scene of the accident, a man out of the crowd was already beside the burning automobile trying to rescue one of its occupants. After two attempts, he succeeded. All around one could hear words of approval for his bravery. Someone said, "Este, si, es gente" — he is a real man.

In every culture even with the bare of publicity for popular acclaim or a secular concept of manliness, true manhood is recognized. It is considered as that which enables, which saves, which gives greater dignity to life. In a time of testing, those virtues somehow emerge to reveal when a man is really a man, a person of god-like spirit.

A Christian serves not to receive the praise of the multitude but with dedication to give of himself in service, even as Jesus gave.

Prayer: Our Father, we would pray for ability to face the challenge of the hour. Grant us the strength and the vision to live bravely and nobly in difficult times. May we prove our true worth every time of testing. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Thought for the day: Our times call for the witness of men of God. (Ivan H. Nothdurft, Argentine)

Always and Everywhere

Let no one imagine that it is a strained and unnatural thing for one to pray. The contrary is much closer to the fact. It is far more unnatural for one not to pray. Prayer is one of the most natural of human instincts. Prayer is man's response to the divine will.

SAN DIEGO GAS & ELECTRIC COMPANY

Nuclear Power Unit On Display Here

A mobile exhibit on nuclear power will be on public display at three locations in the Lemon Grove area today through Tuesday, the San Diego Gas & Electric Company announced. Admission is free.

The exhibit covers the development of nuclear energy for electric power and other peaceful purposes.

Locations and times during which the exhibit can be viewed are:

Grossmont Shopping Center, July 14 and 15 from noon to 7:30 p.m.

White Front Store on Grossmont Blvd., July 16 from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., and July 17 from 10:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.

College Grove Shopping Center, July 18 and 19 from 12:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The exhibit shows not only how nuclear energy was discovered and developed, but explains radioisotopes, tells why man must use the atom as a source of energy, demonstrates how a reactor is used in the generation of electricity and shows many of the peaceful ways in which the atom is being used in medicine and industry to benefit mankind.

Although the exhibit was built for use in connection with the San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station, the applications of nuclear energy that it shows are not limited to a single kind of plant.

The San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station is being built for the San Diego Gas & Electric Company and Southern California Edison Company. It is scheduled to go into operation in May of 1967.

'Untouchable' Jet To Run Saturday Night In Ramona

Fresh from an appearance at Fresno, where it clocked off 259.90 miles per hour in an elapsed time of 6.54 seconds for the quarter-mile, the Romeo Palamides Jet Car, the "Untouchable," will be seen in action at the San Diego Dragway, at Ramona, during Saturday's night meet, as a special added attraction to the regular program of events.

At the controls will be J. D. Zink, a young mathematics major, who has made his indelible mark in the field of jet dragsters, having made more than 300 runs at speeds in excess of 220 mph, in the 1,320 foot distance.

The "Untouchable" is powered by the latest J-47-33 General Electric engine, which can develop 10,000 lbs. of thrust, power.

erful enough to make it possible to run 275 mph in less than six seconds. The car is 26 feet long and weighs 4,500 lbs. It burns fuel at the rate of one gallon per second. In addition to Bendix two-stage power brakes on all four wheels, a new three parachute system aids in slowing down the car at the end of its run at the top of its terrific speeds.

The regular dragsters that make weekly appearances at Ramona, together with top stock, street and hot rod eliminations, bikes, and Run-What-You-Brung brackets of cars will fill out the program.

LM-SV Board Meet Cancelled

The regular meeting of the board of trustees of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District scheduled for Monday night was canceled, due to the lack of a quorum.

Respiratory Problems Cost 685 Million Days In Bed

Between July, 1964 and June, 1965 acute respiratory conditions cost Americans more than 685 million days in bed, Dr. Robert Rosen, Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area chairman of the Tuberculosis & Health Association reported yesterday.

Acute respiratory conditions cost nearly 100 million children more than 189 million school days, and more than 100 million wage, salary, and fee earners

S. Cal. Business Ahead of Year Ago

Southern California's business activity during June declined slightly but continued well above year-ago levels. Harold E. Holsonback, manager of Security First National Bank's College Grove Branch, reported this week.

According to Holsonback, June's moderate decline is the second in as many months after the Southland's economy had moved to record levels in April. As measured by the bank's business index, June's business trend was estimated at 153.6, compared with May's preliminary reading of 154.2. April's record high was 155.4.

On a year-to-year comparative basis, Holsonback said June's overall activity is currently 7 percent ahead of the year earlier period when the index was 142.7.

lost more than 240 million work days.

Emphysema, a condition that makes breathing extremely difficult, increased by 105.4 percent between 1961 and 1965. In 1965 there were 267,000 cases of emphysema. Bronchitis rose by 80.7 percent to 421,000 cases.

In 1963, emphysema ranked as the second most frequent single diagnosis and tuberculosis as the 5th. Cost of disability benefits for emphysema are estimated at $80 million yearly, $60 million to beneficiaries and $20 million to dependents.

Between 1959 and 1964, deaths caused by emphysema rose by 104.4 percent; chronic bronchitis, 90 percent; lung cancer, 31.5 percent; chronic interstitial pneumonia, 16.3 percent and other types of pneumonia (except of newborn), 10.7 percent.

In the same period deaths caused by tuberculosis of all kinds dropped by 27.5 percent and by asthma by 10.9 percent. How can these costs be reduced?

"By seeing your physician at the first sign of respiratory trouble," Doctor Rosen said.

Changing times and methods of crime prevention is the reason given for elimination of horses as standard equipment for the Canadian Mounted Police. Only a few steed will be retained and these will be used for ceremonial purposes.

FAIR WINNER — Mrs. Grace Hewitt of 1680 Skyline Dr., Lemon Grove, won a blue ribbon and a special award for this doll exhibit in the hobby division at the County fair last week. The dolls are original hand-modeled wax figurines. This exhibit was of Grandma Moses. The small picture at center was used for copying the display in wax.

History Of The Golf Club: From Rome To The Space Age

NEW YORK (NAPS) — Whack! That's the sound heard round the nation as millions of Americans tee-off on more than 1900 golf courses. But whether you're a long-time player or just getting into the swing of golf — whether you play with the new fiber glass clubs of space-age origin or use grandfather's woods and irons — chances are you're unaware of the fascinating history behind the golf club.

The ancient Romans played a game called paganica, which involved the use of open countryside, a ball stuffed with feathers — and a bent stick.

In the first century before Christ when the Romans overran Europe, crossed the Channel and occupied parts of England and Scotland, they brought the game with the bent stick with them. It took some 1500 years to refine the game and add straight clubs; and by 1457, "golf" had become so popular in Scotland that it threatened the practice of archery for defense and was promptly outlawed by the King and Parliament.

But the introduction of gun powder near the end of the 15th century lessened the importance of archery and restored golf to the people.

Clubs and Spears

The earliest known club-maker was William Mayne of Edinburgh, who received a Royal Warrant as club-maker and "spear-maker" from James VI in 1603. Among the oldest known clubs is a set of six woods and two irons found in a walled-up closet of a house at Hull, England, with a copy of a Yorkshire newspaper dated 1741, far cry from today's scientific ly designed fiber glass-shafted clubs, all six woods and two irons of this historic find are shafted with ash. Only one wood and one iron have grips. The woods are leaded and boned, the lead extending from near the toe to two-thirds of the way to the heel.

Throughout the 18th century clubs were hand-made by artisans at the few golf courses then in existence. One expert, Douglas McEwan, made his club-heads from small cuts of hedgeshorne which had been planted on sloping banks so that the stems grew at an angle at the root and created a natural bend for the neck.

Feathers? By the first half of the 19th century, clubs had come to be divided into four classes: drivers, spoons, irons and putters.

Since the game at this time was still played with a leather-covered ball stuffed with feathers, all of the clubs tended to be long and slender. But soon after the introduction of the harder gutta percha (rubber-like) ball in 1848, club makers recognized the new strain on the thin clubs and changed their design.

Wooden heads gradually became shorter and squatter in shape. Hard thorn was discarded for the softer apple, pear and beech in the heads, and leather insets appeared on the "faces." Hickory, which originally came from Russia and later from Tennessee, replaced ash in the making of shafts.

Just as the introduction of the more flexible hickory shafts in this period greatly improved the caliber of play, so the new "torque-resistant" fiber glass shafts of present-day clubs promise to do the same. In fact, scientific tests conducted by engineers at Plas/Steel of Walkerton, Indiana, in conjunction with Johns-Manville, with machines that hit all balls the same way, every stroke, show that clubs with fiber glass shafts will drive the ball further and more accurately than those with conventional shafts.

The Plas/Steel Co. was first to introduce unique shafts, called "Glas-Lite" in which glass fibers are woven and then impregnated with plastic, using a technology developed for its space-age Polygon Division.

Fiber Glass

Lacking the unmatched suppleness and whip of fiber glass, 9th century golfers nevertheless broke record upon record. Alan Robertson, with hickory clubs and gutta percha balls shattered all precedent by scoring a 79 at St. Andrews in 1858 and this record stood until Young Tom Morris made a 77 in 1869.

Golf has been influenced by the industrial revolution when the true rubber ball came into the game at the beginning of the 20th century. And these two factors wrought major changes in the clubs and the methods by which they were produced, as craftsmanship moved out of the individual professional's shop and into the factory.

The new hard rubber ball brought about the use of persimmon and, later, laminated clubheads. Drop-forging almost completely replaced hand-forging in the fashioning of iron clubs, and faces were deepened to accommodate the live-ball and were machine-lined to increase the spin of the ball in flight. Stainless steels replaced carbon steels.

Steel Shafts

Seamless steel shafts took the place of hickory — and, if the new trend continues, will be replaced eventually with fiber glass reinforced plastic exemplified by those developed by Plas/Steel.

Improvement of the shaft was accompanied by the general introduction of number clubs rather than named clubs, and by the merchandising of matched sets. Where formerly a golfer seeking new clubs went through an entire rack until he found one that "felt right" and then tried to find other clubs of similar feel, he now bought a whole set manufactured to impart the same feel.

The golf club has come a long way in 2,000 years from a simple bent stick to scientific ly designed and matched woods and irons with supple fiber glass shafts. You owe it to yourself and your game to get the clubs that are best for you.

PacTel Asks PUC For Deposit Rights

Pacific Telephone has asked California Public Utilities Commission approval of a proposal that defines modified rules by which customers may establish their credit, and authorizes collection of a deposit for initial telephone service from certain residence customers.

If approved by the Commission, the deposit, where required, would be $25.00.

Under the proposed new rules by which residence customers may establish their credit, no deposit will be required from a prospective customer who meets any one of the following conditions:

Has previously been a telephone customer in California in the last two years and paid all bills promptly during the last 12 months service was provided.

Is a property owner. Has been with his present employer (including Military) for two years or is retired on a pension.

Can furnish a Guarantor. Is presently a customer of a telephone utility for similar service with good credit.

The effects of the proposed credit rules are difficult to estimate until experience is gained under the proposed procedures, the Company said, but it is hoped they will result in a reduction in losses, yet still make it easy for most customers to establish their credit.

Collection of a deposit will be avoided, whenever possible, it was emphasized.

Under the proposed rules the Company may hold a deposit for a year unless the service is discontinued earlier by the customer. Interest will be paid on all deposits, when refunded, at the rate of a half per cent a month or six per cent a year.

Police Chief W. A. Dart opposed the request and indicated that a commercial business would be unable to get the supervision necessary for the younger group.

Bridger Back In Viet Nam

A local youth who could not condone anti-war parades and pickets has been granted his wish — he's back in Viet Nam, fighting again.

Sp/5 Dan Bridger, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bridger, of 8091 Canton Dr., Lemon Grove, was shipped this week from Ft. Benning, Ga. to fight with his 544th Engineers.

Sgt. Dan, according to his father, a Spring Valley real estate broker, was hurt in Qui Nhon in November while on volunteer search and rescue duty with a helicopter outfit. He was hurt during a rescue drop.

He was brought back to Letterman hospital in San Francisco for treatment in December.

His father said Dan took the position that "if you're in the Army you ought to be fighting" so he made himself available for active duty again, and requested more Viet Nam service.

"He doesn't like Viet Nam," his father said. "But he dislikes Vietnams worse. The college peace marchers and pickets distressed him. These guys distress all the fellows in Viet Nam," the elder Bridger said.

Dan Bridger graduated from Mt. Miguel High School and was attending Grossmont College when he enlisted in 1964. He is now 21. He was a member of a road department survey party for the County of San Diego when he left.

The four-week course included over 200 hours of instruction under simulated combat conditions, covering squad tactics, guerrilla warfare, day and night combat, patrolling, and the use of infantry weapons.

Spring Valley Chief Honored For Service

Senior Chief Robert E. Pitts ended seven years aboard U. S. S. Thomaston (LSD-28) Thursday.

Pitts was piped off the ship by sideboys composed of officers and chiefs after receiving an armload of awards and citations in a special ceremony. He is transferring to the fleet reserve.

Captain F. T. Stephens congratulated the veteran damage controlman as one of the Thomaston's real old-timers.

Chief Pitts has probably set a record for being on this ship longer than anyone," the Captain said. "The record will probably never be broken."

Captain Stephens also commended the chief for his morale-building talents as head of the ship's master at arms force.

Pitts received a letter of commendation and the ship's seal mounted on a plaque.

The final honor was another plaque with Pitts' master at arms badge attached to it.

"In sports they often retire an all star's number after the end of the season," Captain Stephens said. "I think we should retire the chief's badge in the same spirit."

Chief Pitts entered the Navy in Dec. 1941. He has averaged about one trip per year to the Western Pacific since 1948.

Pitts, 48, lives with his wife Lola at 9625 George, Spring Valley. They have one son.
